

Learning Partnership.

CPD Programme
2022/23

Welcome to the Learning Partnership.

Thank you for taking the time to explore the Learning Partnership.

I am delighted to invite you to join us for the forthcoming academic year and beyond.

The Learning Partnership is different. We work in partnership with schools and educators to identify emerging needs each year, and tailor our CPD offer to help schools improve in the areas that matter the most. Through our programme of high-quality and targeted continued professional development, we are committed to helping schools and teachers continually improve.

Supporting you, your staff and your school via our programme of high quality professional development for 2022-23, we aim to develop schools by developing teachers. Our training focuses on pedagogy, school leadership, foundation subjects and curriculum development, offering development opportunities for teachers at all levels.

There are four ways to work with us in 2022-23 that are explained in more detail throughout this brochure:

- 1. Become a Partner School
1 year: £4.00 per pupil capped at £2000.00
3 years: £3.00 per pupil capped at £4500.00
- 2. Become an Affiliate School
1 year: £3.00 per pupil capped at £1500.00
3 years: £2.00 per pupil capped at £3000.00
- 3. Buy individual elements of the professional development support programme - see each element for costing
- 4. Buy ad hoc places: individual places on sessions

We look forward to you joining the partnership. If you need any further information please do get in touch via email, iain.simper@learningpartnership.uk or via phone 01733 686886.

Many thanks.

Become a Partner School.

Becoming a Partner School of the Learning Partnership not only gives schools free and unlimited access to our CPD courses throughout the year, it also provides you with more hands-on support and guidance from our consultants to help develop your CPD strategy.

We will meet with your school on a termly basis to help guide and develop your CPD strategy, in line with your school development plan. It will also give you exclusive access to our school-to-school support network, and the opportunity to shape, present and attend our Partner School Webinar programme – aiming to facilitate meaningful collaboration and sharing of best practice among our member schools.

And, best of all, this will all come at a simple and easy to understand fixed annual cost of £4.00 per pupil per year capped at £1,500. This is also discounted to £3.00 per pupil for a three-year subscription capped at £4,000.

Becoming a Partner School brings you the following:

CPD access	Access to all CPD as detailed in this brochure from the Learning Partnership at no additional cost during the academic year 2022-23 # Where possible, courses are recorded and currently available to Partner Schools only. Access is time limited until the end of the current membership period.

CPD Programme 2022-23

We are committed to developing schools by developing teachers.

We are proud to be a leading professional development provider, supporting schools on their school improvement journeys, providing timely, responsive, and effective CPD opportunities for staff in schools.

We are proud to be different – we work in partnership with schools and educators, analysing SDPs, Ofsted reports, and 1:1 conversations with school leaders, to identify emerging needs, evaluate impact and provide our schools with the very best training opportunities that drives real school improvement.

Our Course Fees *(may be subject to change)

Subject Leader Network			Half Day Course			Full Day Course
Partner	Affiliate	Non member	Partner	Affiliate	Non member	Partner	Affiliate	Non member

We believe that all schools should benefit from effective support to improve learning outcomes for pupils and continued professional development of teachers.

1. Professional development should have a focus on improving and evaluating pupil outcomes.
2. Professional development should be underpinned by robust evidence and expertise.
3. Professional development should include collaboration and expert challenge.
4. Professional development programmes should be sustained over time. And all this is underpinned by, and requires that: professional development must be prioritised by school leadership and staff in partnership

How do I book staff onto a course?

Access to all of our courses is through our website: www.learningpartnership.org.uk/courses-events/

Unless otherwise stated courses are online. Where a critical mass of geographically near schools wish to commission face to face courses then this can be accommodated.

Click on the course you are interested in and an email response box will pop-up. This has drop down spaces for booking all the details in and, when sent, will go to our administration team. You will receive a confirmation email.

Where possible, courses are recorded and currently available to Partner Schools only. Access is time limited until the end of your school's current membership period.

You can track your engagement via your 'Account' accessed via our website: <https://events.learningpartnership.uk/members/login>

Nurture

Led by Nurture4All, Jeni Barnacle

Jeni has a proven track record as a head teacher, including leading and managing a primary school through significant change and challenge using the nurture principles from 2002. One of the first schools nationally to do so and facilitating the transformation of a 'failing and challenging school' to a vibrant holistic learning environment for all the community including the innovation of a foundation unit for 3-5yr olds. The principles involve creating an atmosphere of mutual respect and positive values, though an early years approach, a rich creative curriculum with a priority on outdoors learning. The school featured on Teachers TV Happiest days programme (2007) resulting in Jeni speaking at a number of high profile conferences to share the impact.

RSHE/PSHE

Led by PSHE Solutions

John Rees is passionately committed to enhancing the learning and life-chances of children and young people, through school improvement and the professional development of individuals and organizations. Having taught for 12 years, latterly as a senior leader, John led the transformation of a theory driven, evidence-informed health education research project from Exeter University to eventually involve 200+ schools across the UK and overseas, with unique evidence of health benefit and educational improvement.

An independent educational consultant since 2006, John has enjoyed repeat commissions supporting health and educational improvement, including roles as a Regional Advisor for the PSHE Association and the National PSHE CPD programme. Currently John works with Local Authorities, ITT providers, charities, and commercial organisations, in addition to a range of coaching, training and consultancy to support school and health improvement across the UK and overseas. John has recently started (p/t) as PSHE advisor for Kirklees Local Authority, focussing on R(S)HE / PSHEe, SMSC, mental health and behaviour management.

17.11.22	The statutory components of R(S)HE is, in many schools now at the heart of the curriculum, within a wider framework of PSHE education. We know that this can impact positively on safeguarding, physical and emotional health and pupils' attainment. So where are we now? This session will reflect on the rationale for high-quality PSHE education, enable participants to reflect on how they have adapted their curriculum to improve on pupil (and staff) wellbeing, and how this contributes to the OFSTED expectations around personal development. We will also be seeking colleagues' views for future training needs.
